

Frequently Asked Questions

What supplies do you need?

- The only thing you will need is all of your required documentation for the course. DME needs original forms for test

What documents are required to qualify?

- Government-issued photo ID (e.g., driver's license, passport)
- FAA Form 8610-2 (Airman Certificate and/or Rating Application - Mechanic and Parachute Rigger) or
- Proof of experience or education:
 - Graduation certificate from an [FAA-approved Aviation Maintenance Technician School \[AMTS\]](#) (*if applicable)
 - Certificate of Eligibility for U.S. Military (*if applicable)
- Test reports (if applicable*)
 - Duplicate or expired test report (AKTR) from PSI account (for tests taken on or after January 13, 2020)
 - Email request to AFB-721-ONLY-CTR@faa.gov for test reports taken before January 10, 2020
 - Any failed oral and practical exam reports

Dress code?

- Anything you are comfortable studying in

Drinks/snacks/food?

- Nothing is prohibited: we have a Keurig, fridge, and freezer for anything you choose to bring

First day/time of class?

- 8am-4pm (end times may vary). The dates are posted on our website as well as sent to you via email when you sign up. Delayed due to any reason call (833) 237-6776.

Wifi?

- Yes, we have wifi for you

Is there anything I can use to study prior to arriving?

- We recommend the phone app ASA Prepware & Jeppesen Oral Questions ($10 in the app store)

What is there to do around Gulf Shores?

- Check out our local tourism website: <https://www.gulfshores.com/>

What is the price breakdown?

- Course Fee: $1,200
 - To secure your spot, a $500 deposit is required. This deposit is subtracted from your total course fee, ensuring it does not exceed $1,200
 - Payment is made via invoice through our bookkeeper
- Written Exams: $175/each or $525/3
 - Fee: $175 per test, which includes retakes if needed
 - If you plan to test for all 3 ratings, the total is $525
 - Payment for writtens is made by card at the off-site PSI location
- Orals & Practicals: $300/each or $800/3
 - Fee: $800 for all 3 exams
 - Payment is made in cash directly to the DME

*While payments are made to three separate entities, entire course, including writtens and orals & practicals, amounts to $2,525.

Do you have deals with local hotels?

- We do not, however, we are located near several hotels, motels, inns, and Airbnbs. The nearest being 1.7 miles

Where are you located?

- 1235 Commerce Dr Gulf Shores, Alabama 36542

Study Material Acquisition

- Written Test
 - ASA, Jeppesen, or Dauntless
- AMT General Handbook
- AMT Airframe Handbook
- AMT Powerplant Handbook
- Jeppesen Oral Questions